

The Organizational Chart represents the functional structure of the Village and operating departments. It is not intended to fully reflect the budgetary expense allocations, as several positions are budgeted through multiple funds.